The students must strictly follow the rules and regulations of examination set down by Kavayitri Bahinabai Chaudhari North Maharashtra University Jalgaon.

GIRLS HOSTEL

The rules concerning admission and conduct in college hostel for girls are to be strictly followed. Violation of these rules may result in fines and expulsion from the hostel, including debarring from readmission to the hostel.

2. CODE OF CONDUCT FOR TEACHERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE COLLEGE:

Teachers and employees of the college must adhere to the code of conduct as prescribed in Maharashtra Public Universities Act 2016, Statutes, Ordinances and Maharashtra Civil Service Rules (MCSR), the Seventh Pay Commission rules and other regulations prescribed by the government and university. Violation of the rules will lead to disciplinary actions as prescribed in these rules and regulations. The governing bodies and administration are bound to follow Maharashtra Public Universities Act 2016 and the directives from University Grants Commission (UGC).

3. PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Professional ethics are very important to the college as it believes in strict observance of professional ethics and the maintenance of academic integrity on the part of the teachers and students.

A. TEACHERS AND PROFESSIONAL ETHICS: (Adopted from UGC Guidelines, February, 2018)

Responsibilities of Teachers:

Whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself / herself in accordance with the ideal of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his precepts and practice. The national ideals of education which have already been set forth and which he/she should seek to inculcate among students must be his/her own ideals. The profession further requires that the teachers should be calm, patient and communicative by temperament and amiable in disposition.

Teachers should:

- (i) Adhere to a responsible pattern of conduct and demeanour expected of them by the community;
- (ii) Manage their private affairs in a manner consistent with the dignity of the profession;
- (iii) Seek to make professional growth continuous through study and research;
- (iv) Express free and frank opinion by participation at professional meetings, seminars, conferences etc. towards the contribution of knowledge;
- (v) Maintain active membership of professional organizations and strive to improve education and profession through them;
- (vi) Perform their duties in the form of teaching, tutorial, practical, seminar and research work conscientiously and with dedication;
- (vii) Co-operate and assist in carrying out functions relating to the educational responsibilities of the college and the university such as: assisting in appraising applications for admission, advising and counselling students as well as assisting the conduct of university and college examinations, including supervision, invigilation and evaluation; and
- (viii) Participate in extension, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities including community service.

Teachers and Students

Teachers should:

- (i) Respect the right and dignity of the student in expressing his/her opinion;
- (ii) Deal justly and impartially with students regardless of their religion, caste, political, economic, social and physical characteristics;
- (ii) Recognize the difference in aptitude and capabilities among students and strive to meet their individual needs;
- (iv) Encourage students to improve their attainments, develop their personalities and at the same time contribute to community welfare;
- (v) Inculcate among students, scientific outlook and respect for physical labour and ideals of democracy, patriotism and peace;

- (vi) Be affectionate to the students and not behave in a vindictive manner towards any of them for any reason;
- (vii) Pay attention to only the attainment of the student in the assessment of merit;
- (viii) Make themselves available to the students even beyond their class hours and help and guide students without any remuneration or reward;
- (ix) Aid students to develop an understanding of our national heritage and national goals; and
- (x) Refrain from inciting students against other students, colleagues or administration.
- (xi) Encourage and guide students to establish academic and social platforms and carryout focused activities

Teachers and Colleagues

Teachers should:

- (i) Treat other members of the profession in the same manner as they themselves wish to be treated;
- (ii) Speak respectfully of other teachers and render assistance for professional betterment;
- (iii) Refrain from lodging unsubstantiated allegations against colleagues to higher authorities; and
- (iv) Refrain from allowing considerations of caste, creed, religion, race or sex in their professional endeavour.
- (iv) Co-operate with members of other disciplines for research and to curate courses and programmes for students

Teachers and Authorities

Teachers should:

- (i) Discharge their professional responsibilities according to the existing rules and adhere to procedures and methods consistent with their profession in initiating steps through their own institutional bodies and/or professional organizations for change of any such rule detrimental to the professional interest;
- (ii) Refrain from undertaking any other employment and commitment including private tuitions and coaching classes which are likely to interfere with their professional responsibilities;
- (iii) Co-operate in the formulation of policies of the institution by accepting various offices and discharge responsibilities which such offices may demand;
- (iv) Co-operate through their organizations in the formulation of policies of the other institutions and accept offices;
- (v) Co-operate with the authorities for the betterment of the institutions keeping in view the interest and in conformity with dignity of the profession;
- (vi) Should adhere to the conditions of contract;
- (vii) Give and expect due notice before a change of position is made; and
- (viii) Refrain from availing themselves of leave except on unavoidable grounds and as far as practicable with prior intimation, keeping in view their particular responsibility for completion of academic schedule.

Teachers and Non- teaching Staff

Teachers should:

- (i) Teachers should treat the non-teaching staff as colleagues and equal partners in a cooperative undertaking, within every educational institution; and
- (ii) Teachers should help in the function of joint staff-councils covering both teachers and the non-teaching staff.

Teachers and Guardians

Teachers should:

- (i) Try to see through teachers' bodies and organizations that institutions maintain contact with the guardians, their students, send reports of their performance to the guardians whenever necessary and meet the guardians in meetings convened for the purpose for mutual exchange of ideas and for the benefit of the institution.

Teachers and Society

Teachers should:

- (i) Recognize that education is a public service and strive to keep the public informed of the educational programmes which are being provided;
- (ii) Work to improve education in the community and strengthen the community's moral and intellectual life;
- (iii) Be aware of social problems and take part in such activities as would be conducive to the progress of society and hence the country as a whole;
- (iv) Perform the duties of citizenship, participate in community activities and shoulder responsibilities of public offices;
- (v) Refrain from taking part in or subscribing to or assisting in any way activities, which tend to promote feelings of hatred or enmity among different communities, religions or linguistic groups but actively work for National Integration.
- (vi) Act as a bridge between community and academics, utilising academic agency for contributing to solving social issues, and recognising the latent knowledge base in society and channelising it for academic purposes.

B. STUDENTS AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

The college is looking forward to advanced scientific research and education. It values academic integrity and is always devoted to the development of an intellectual and ethical environment built on the principles of academic integrity. Academic Integrity demands honesty, responsibility and awareness towards research ethics and scholarship. It is the belief of the college that the ideas and contributions of everyone must be acknowledged properly in all academic affairs. Academic integrity is important for the success of the college and its research missions, and hence, violation of academic integrity is offensive. The inability to maintain academic integrity is a threat to the reputation of the college and value of the degrees awarded to its students. Therefore, it is the responsibility of every individual in the college to contribute to the cause of academic integrity at their best.

The principles of academic integrity expect that students should:

- i) properly acknowledge and refer to the works, ideas and words of others.
- ii) properly acknowledge the contribution of all to a work.

- iii) ensure that works submitted by them under any academic activity are produced without the support of impermissible materials or impermissible collaboration.
- iv) obtain all data or results by ethical means and report them accurately.
- v) treat all other students respectfully, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their education without any interference.

College desires all the students to follow the rules and regulations set down by the college for research and publication, as any violation of these rules will lead to disciplinary actions by the college.

The college is looking forward to uphold academic honesty and integrity. It values academic integrity and is always devoted to the development of an uncluttered and ethical environment built on the principles of academic integrity. Academic integrity demands honesty, responsibility and respect towards research ethics and scholarship. It is the belief that the aims and consequences of research must be acknowledged properly in all work. Academic integrity is important for the success of the college and its students. Academic integrity is the foundation of academic integrity. The ability to uphold academic integrity is a direct reflection of the college and value of the research. Therefore, it is the responsibility of every individual in the college to uphold academic integrity at their best.

B. STUDENTS AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

(i) Work to improve education in the community and strengthen the community's social and intellectual life.

(ii) The work of social scientists and this part is each subject as would be desirable in the progress of society and hence the country as a whole.

(iii) Within the limits of scientific methods in community activities and research responsibilities of individuals.

(iv) Social scientists have a responsibility to report in any way activities which tend to promote feelings of hatred or unity among different communities, religions or groups and actively work for national integration.

(v) Act as a bridge between community and academic, utilizing research skills in contributing to solving social issues, and recognizing the basic knowledge base in society and strengthening it for academic purposes.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL POLICY

As per University guidelines, Grievance Redressal Committee is constituted in the college for the purpose of solving grievances of the students and parents and others.

Students Grievance Committee enquires and analyses the nature and pattern of the grievances in a strictly confidential manner. Emphasis on procedural fairness has been given with a view as 'the right to be heard and right to be treated without biases.

During the years no such major grievances were received. Grievances otherwise received were forwarded to the Principals for immediate redressal. In all such cases prompt action were taken and the matter sorted out. In all cases the aggrieved student was informed of the measures taken and checks in the system were introduced to ensure there was no repetition of the same.

The purpose of the cell is to look into the complaints lodged by any student, and judge its merit and to promote and maintain a conducive and unprejudiced educational environment.

Anyone with a genuine grievance may approach the Grievance Cell.

In case the person is unwilling to appear in self, grievances may drop in writing at the suggestion box of the Grievance Cell at the College office.

Objective:

The objective of the Grievance Cell is to develop a responsive and accountable attitude among all the stakeholders in order to maintain a harmonious educational atmosphere in the institute and to resolve the grievances.

Guidelines:

Guidelines for submitting grievances:

1. OFFLINE MECHANISM

- a) For girl student: Drop your complaint in the Complaint Box placed in girls' common room.

Annual Report of Anti-Ragging Committee (Academic Year- 2020-21)

The annual meeting of the Anti-Ragging Committee was held on 15/03/2021 following the rules of social distancing. In this academic year due to COVID-19 Pandemic, classes of the students were engaged in online mode; therefore no grievances were received from the students.

Only the suggestions from the side of the girl students were received regarding to conduct separate online classes for them. But since it was not possible, they were convinced.
